The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 9, to Tuesday July 12, 1763.

St. James's, July 12.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the City of Londonderry, having been tranſmitted to His Excellency the Earl of Northumberland, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the City of Londonderry in the Kingdom of Ireland.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes and Principal Inhabitants of the City of Londonderry, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty, the moſt ſincere and cordial Aſſurances, of our unalterable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, and Government.

Convinced as we are of our Sovereign's gracious Attention, and Paternal Regard to every Part of His Dominions, however remote from His Royal Preſence, we promiſe ourſelves, that your Majeſty will favourably accept this Teſtimony of Loyalty and Affection from the Citizens of your faithful City of Londonderry; who, animated with the ſame Conſtitutional Principles as our Illuſtrious Mother the City of London, eſteem it our Duty to declare our entire Satisfaction in the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, and our grateful Senſe of the Advantages which you have procured for theſe your Kingdoms, in the Concluſion of a Glorious and Succesful War, by a Juſt and Honourable Peace.

At the ſame Time, we cannot help expreſſing the deepeſt Reſentment againſt every Attempt to leſſen that Reſpect which is ſo juſtly due from Subjects to their Sovereign, or to alienate their Affections from a Prince who hath invariably made the Laws the Rule of His Government, and in ſo eminent a Manner conſiders Himſelf as the Common Father of all His People.

Not leſs zealous than our Anceſtors of this Place, for the Preſervation of our happy Conſtitution, and Liberties dearer to us than our Lives, we deteſt that factious Spirit which falſely aſſumes the Name of Patriotiſm, but really tends to the Subverſion of thoſe Liberties which it pretends to aſſert; and are fully determined to exert ourſelves, within our proper Sphere, in ſupporting, on all Occaſions, even at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes, your Majeſty's juſt Prerogative, and the Honour and Dignity of your Crown.

May the ſame impartial Steadineſs, which hath hitherto ſo remarkably diſtinguiſhed your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government, continue to ſurmount every Obſtacle to the Publick Tranquility, and the repoſe of your Royal Heart; and finally ſecure to your Majeſty a long, happy, and glorious Reign over a loyal, affectionate, and united People.

Given under our common Seal, the 8th of June 1763.

The following Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters in the County of Northumberland, the Towns of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, and Berwick upon Tweed, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Rev. Dr. Chandler, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters in the County of Northumberland, the Towns of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, and Berwick upon Tweed.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters in the County of Northumberland, the Towns of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, and Berwick upon Tweed, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the happy Concluſion of the late bloody and expenſive War, by a Safe, Honourable, and Advantageous Peace; a Peace, by which a great Multitude of Subjects, and many extenſive Countries, capable of great Improvements, are added to the Britiſh Empire.

We hope that this great Increaſe of your Majeſty's Dominions will, by the Bleſſing of God on your pious Endeavours, become an Occaſion of the Enlargement of the Redeemer's Kingdom; that many Nations, Strangers, as yet, to the Pleaſures of poliſhed Life, and to the Bleſſings of True Religion, will, in a little Time, be civilized and converted to the Chriſtian Faith.

We embrace, with Pleaſure, this Opportunity of aſſuring your Majeſty, that, as it is our indiſpenſible Duty, it ſhall be our conſtant Endeavour, to confirm our Hearers in their well-known Principles of Loyalty and ſteady Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government; to warn them of the Guilt and Danger of Faction and Licentiouſneſs; to inſpire them with a grateful Senſe of the ineſtimable Bleſſings of civil and religious Liberty which we enjoy under your Majeſty's equitable and mild Adminiſtration; to engage them to join with us in moſt earneſt Prayers to God, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long, long, peaceful, and glorious, over a free, happy, and united People; and that the Britiſh Crown may continue to flouriſh, with increaſing Luſtre, on the Heads of Princes of your Majeſty's amiable Character, and illuſtrious Family, to the lateſt Ages.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, by Sam. Lowthion, Moderator.
